PROFILE SUMMARY

I specialize in video editing, art direction, and project leadership. With extensive industry experience, I bring concepts and stories to life, ensuring every project ends with exceptional results. Editing is at the heart of my creative process, and I use my understanding of it as the foundation to build engaging narratives from the ground up.

In addition to my creative skills, I excel at leading teams, managing client relationships, and overseeing projects from concept through post-production. Known for being dependable and results-driven, I consistently deliver high-quality work and motivate teams to achieve their best.
